- Corporate training providers

Our expertise within education recruitment is considerable. We cover all the major continents, plus all subjects, disciplines and sectors are covered too. No matter what your requirement, we can help.

Having been recognised by the British Government, overseas embassies and trade bodies for international recruitment services as well as winning numerous international business awards, you are certainly in the right place when it comes to education recruitment.

Testimonials

"It was a cold snowy wet February and I nearly cancelled my appointment at the m2r recruitment fair as I was the first to be seen on a Saturday at 9.00am. I am so pleased that I went as I have successfully secured an international teaching position in Oman! I highly and happily recommended m2r to any teacher looking to make the transition to an international career!"

"m2r are number our number 1 PSL partner. They support our recruitment efforts in Saudi Arabia as well as in China and I treat them as an extension of the internal Recruitment team. m2r provides their clients with immense support in challenging high volume recruitment drives. Their flexible, friendly and professional services have outstanding reputation across the ME region; among the candidates and education management network. m2r are very organised and never fail to follow clients' direction and internal processes. I would recommend m2r's services to anyone with recruitment needs in the education industry."
